

Physical Examination

Neck
Shoulders
Pelvis
Hips
Knees
Feet

Neck
Shoulders
Pelvis
Hips
Knees
Feet

Yes		No
R	L	R	L
				Is the head balanced
				Are the Shoulders protracted
				Are the normal spinal curves exaggerated
				Are the normal spinal curves reversed
				Are the arm positions at the sides of the body
				Are the knees relaxed
				Are the knees locked in extension
				Is the body rotated as a whole

Yes		No
R	L	R	L
				Is the head tilted to one side
				Are the Shoulders symmetrical
				Is the clavicular line horizontal
				Are the arms an equal distance from the side of the body
				Are the pelvic crests level
				Are the thighs level
				Are the Patellae deviated
				Do the feet have a normal arch
				Do the feet pronate (turn in/out)

Yes		No
R	L	R	L
				Are the shoulders level?
				Are the height and positions of the scapulae equal
				Are the fat folds equal and symmetrical
				Are the pelvic crests level
				Are the buttock creases level
				Are the creases of the knees equal in height
				Are the feet placed symmetrically apart
				Do the Achilles tendons appear deviated